Location of incidents: King County Sheriff's Department, Sexual Assault Unit
Regional Justice Center, Kent, Washington

Description of Details:

Ms. Luitgaarden is a long-time employee of the King County Sheriff's Office (KCSO). She is currently a detective in the KCSO's Sexual Assault Unit, which is the detective unit that investigates crimes of sexual violence committed against children and adults. For well over a decade, she has worked in the Sexual Assault Unit under the management of various Sergeants including: Jutilla, Provenzo and Mahlum. Ms. Luitgaarden is one of approximately four female detectives in the Sexual Assault Unit.

For well over a decade, while under the management of Jutilla, Provenzo and Mahlum, Ms. Luitgaarden, and other female detectives in the Sexual Assault Unit have been subjected, unfairly and unlawfully, to sexual and gender based harassment. Under the tenure of Jutilla's management of the Sexual Assault Unit, Ms. Luitgaarden was singled out for unfair treatment, verbal abuse, acts of sexual and gender based harassment, and retaliatory actions taken against her for purported acts of "insubordination." For the past nine years, while under the management team of Provenzo and Mahlum, Ms. Luitgaarden was subjected to repeated acts of: verbal abuse against Ms. Luitgaarden; yelling, and screaming at Ms. Luitgaarden in the presence of her peers; openly discussing the size of Ms. Luitgaarden's bottom while in front of her colleagues; comparing the size of Ms. Luitgaarden's bottom to that of another woman's in front of Ms. Luitgaarden and her colleagues; referring to Ms. Luitgaarden's telephone calls as "a call from my wife" and thereby degrading her status as a veteran detective; subjecting Ms.

Luitgaarden to unfair criticism of her work product, while never criticizing her male colleagues for the same work product; threats of retaliation against Ms. Luitgaarden if she spoke in opposition to Provenzo (i.e., to demote Ms. Luitgaarden and send her "back to patrol" or to re-assign her to a different precinct); and other acts of sexual and gender based harassment. For the past nine years, Sergeants Provenzo and Mahlum have also acted in a similarly unfair and unlawful manner to two of Ms. Luitgaarden's co-workers: Ms. Priebe-Olson and Ms. Ferguson.

In contrast, none of the four male detectives who work in the Sexual Assault Unit, supervised by Provenzo and Mahlum, are subjected to the aforementioned abuse and harassment.

Ms. Luitgaarden has suffered significant damages as a result of the chronic and ongoing sexual and gender based harassment by her male superiors. Ms. Luitgaarden has suffered tremendous emotional distress and stress that has impacted her job performance, and pain and humiliation as a result of the years of sexual and gender based harassment at the hands of Jutilla, Provenzo and Mahlum. The years spent working in the toxic, degrading and humiliating environment created by these male managers has taken a toll on her emotionally, physically and mentally.

King County's Involvement: (if possible, please identify employee and/or department involved)

The acts of sexual and gender based harassment, and other abuse as detailed above, occurred in the course of Ms. Luitgaarden's employment as a detective with the King County Sheriff's Department, Sexual Assault Unit. The department involved is the King County Sheriff's Department. The employees involved in the discriminatory acts include the following individuals: Sergeants Dave Jutilla, Tony Provenzo and Paul Mahlum. Our investigation is ongoing and may reveal additional individual parties involved.
